

Get enough Poi?

Come talk story about what we as a community can do to have more kalo and poi on our tables.

Saturday, January 27
10:00 am – 3:00 pm
Old School Cafeteria
Lunch Provided

Topics for discussion:

- Nutritional value of kalo and poi
- Fallow lo‘i that can be restored
- Land tenure and water issues
- Community work days to restore lo‘i
- Cooperative harvesting and processing
- Distribution to those most in need – kupuna, infants, hapai mothers, those with diabetes and other health challenges
- Making kalo farming economically viable, while...
- Making poi affordable for our community

For more information contact Scott Crawford at 248-8808 or scott@aloha.net

Sponsored by Ala Kukui, a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of Internal Revenue Code, in partnership with Kipahulu Ohana, Hui No Ke Ola Pono, Kahanu Garden, Ohana Makamae, East Maui Taro Festival, Kipahulu Community Association and other East Maui nonprofit organizations.